The Chronicles of Alice Series by Christina Henry

Alice is in a hospital for troubled or dangerous individuals. Like Hatcher, the guy next door who chopped people up because he felt like. Like Alice herself who has some recollections of stabbing someone, but she can't quite grasp at the memory enough to be certain. But the outside world is full of just as many eccentric, dark and dangerous things.

The first is told from the perspective of a grade-school girl in the Alice world whose wishes come true, the second from Alice's perspective after the events of Red Queen, the third from Hatcher's and the fourth returns to Alice.

Looking Glass by Christina Henry - Goodreads

Alice is an odd sort of book. It's loosely inspired by Alice in Wonderland, or at least themes from that crazy world we all know and love, but is much darker. Alice is in a hospital for troubled or dangerous individuals. Like Hatcher, the guy next door who chopped people up because he felt like.
