Though it doesn't flow as well the sense might be best rendered by, "Can two walk (they) united-as-one except they-have-made-an-agreement to be agreed." They walk as they have continued to abide in that agreement as the Hebrew is not strictly past tense but an ongoing agreement. This is put first as this is the sum of the Covenant relationship. This is the heartfelt desire of Yahweh that his people may walk in unity, together as one in

Amos 3:3 - Bible Gateway

Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their labor: If either of them falls down, one can help the other up. But pity anyone who falls and has no one to help them up. Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm. But how can one keep warm alone? Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves. A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

Mark Them Which Walk The sequel to The Apothecary's Ointment. In the previous story, disappointment in a trusted friend and mentor had given Melvin Heath a temporary setback and left him disillusioned and uncertain, but hopeful. At this low point in Heath's spiritual life following the downfall of his mentor, when he found himself bewildered and adrift, an older friend had encouraged him with these words: Cursed be the man that trusteth in man . . . but Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is. In the years that followed, Melvin
