A Void - French author Georges Perec's 400-page novel where a bunch of buddies search for their missing chum Anton Vowl, an adventure yarn parodying genres like crime noir and Gothic horror, all with a variety of spins on style and wordplay - verbal monkeyshines, linguistic antics, quizzical phonetic pranks, rhetorical roguery.

A Void by Georges Perec - Goodreads

In this book, this Void, I found no lack of things for stimulation of my mind. In fact, Void is not a void at all. Pagination # 104:
`Twas upon a midnight tristful, I sat poring, wan and wistful
Through many a quant and curious listful of my consorts slain.
"Aha!"

A Void is an unnerving but insanely compelling work, and one which is rather hard to compare with anything else. It does have some similarities with Perec's later classic Life A User's Manual, but it will never be as popular. Adair deserves special praise for translating a work which poses such unusual difficulties; one almost feels he should ...
