After reading both of her books in the span of three days, I can officially say that Emery Lord is a new favorite author of mine. I loved the Start of Me and You, and to my delight, Open Road Summer was just as amazing. I loved the friendship between Dee and Reagan, and the added aspect of Dee's fame was really interesting and different to read.

Open Road Summer is a book about friendship and the power it has to heal, understand, and just let you “be”. It’s about love and the power it has to change, evolve, and overcome. It’s about second chances, about wakeup calls, reality checks, about compromise, mistakes, and forgiveness. I feel in love with the characters almost instantly.
