Paper Doll Spenser Mysteries

Good premise, Spenser is hired to track down the killer of a socialite and the police are out of clues. He encounters many twists and turns as he solves the mystery. What had me downgrade to a 3.5 were several things. Spenser is chauvinistic and it's an uncomfortable read in that way (ok, admittedly an older book).

Spenser is out to solve the mystery of an actor killed on stage during a performance, and Hawk and Vinnie join in, mostly as his body guards. The plot is not complicated and the characters are great, including Spenser's girlfriend Susan, who adds romance as well as humor and analytical skills. Spenser's dry wit keeps you laughing throughout. e
