Storyline. The Long Road Home tells the story of the eight-hour battle in Sadr City on April 4, 2004, that followed the ambush of a newly-arrived American platoon. Told in real time through the eyes of untested soldiers in combat for the first time, their families anxiously awaiting news on the home front, and ordinary Iraqis trapped in the chaos of war, the series gives viewers an intimate and unforgettable portrait of what it's really like to go to war.

The Long Road Home is more enjoyable than I expected. I wasn't enjoying the book at first. I thought the violence Gabrielle's mother showed towards her was so extreme it was ridiculous. It was too much at times. Instead of developing sympathy towards Gabrielle it just put me off reading the book. I didn't have any sympathy at all.
