Marcus Aurelius - The Meditations | Britannica

This is the biggest lesson of the Meditations, the greatest wisdom Marcus has to offer: it is your reaction to life, not life itself, that creates happiness. This was the principle Nelson Mandela stuck to when he was imprisoned. This is the principal that is the core of stoicism. "You have power over your mind - not outside events.

Meditations originally had no title and was written by Marcus Aurelius for his own benefit, not for an audience. And it's funny to think that his writings may be as special as they are because they were never intended for us to be read. Almost every other piece of literature is a kind of performance—it's made for the audience.
